

Excused Absences Statement of Understanding

According to the Mercer University Macon campus 2021-2022 catalog, general undergraduate degree requirements policy:

Students who are absent on the first class day who have not made prior arrangements with the instructor may be disenrolled from the course in order to allow registration of students on wait lists. Instructors monitor class attendance from the class start date through the official University census date, approximately 15 days minimum. This information is used to establish University enrollment counts. (p. 97)
